An auto skidded to a stop on the driveway at a big airport, and a man jumped out of it, ran through the field gate, raced out on the runway toward a taxiing plane. But before he'd gone fifty yards, the ship had taken to the air.

At the fence lolled a bystander puffing on a corn cob pipe. "I say," he spoke up as the man came walking back. "Were you trying to catch that plane Mister?"

The man eyed him for a moment, obviously having difficulty in holding himself in. "Heck no!" he replied. "I just didn't like the looks of it - - - - so I chased it off the field!"
